

Title: Intergenerational Recreation Programmer

Reports To: Active Living Manager

Nature of Position: Seasonal (8 weeks, 35 hours/week).

Description:

The Intergenerational Recreation Programmer is responsible for intergenerational programs designed to bring together individuals of different ages to promote social interaction and physical activity.

Responsibilities (but not limited to):

- Create and implement social and physical activity programs for older adults, encouraging and increase in physical activity.
- Create social and physical activity programs for children under the age of 5, encouraging family participation and trying new physical and/or recreation activities together.
- Create social and physical active programs that bring children, youth and adults to recreate together.
- Create unstructured activities that participants and participate in on their own.
- Plan above activities so programs and events are inclusive for all.
- Participate with the children, youth and adults as well as encourage participation from all.
- Ensure an inclusive and welcoming environment.
- Responsible for program equipment and materials.
- Maintain accurate records including incident reports, daily attendance, program activities and equipment checks.
- Ensure the equipment, facilities and grounds are safe..
- Enforce safety rules and regulations.
- Interact in a positive and friendly manner with the public and coworkers.
- Set a positive example in exercise, food selection, personal habits, and attitude.
- Perform other related duties as assigned.

Qualifications/Skills Required:

- Must enjoy working with all ages, especially children and youth
- Ability to accept guidance and work with little supervision
- Coordination, planning and organizational skills
- Excellent oral communication skills
- Positive attitude, enthusiasm, patience, and self-control
- Current First Aid/CPR or obtain before commencing

Work Conditions:

- Occasional evening and weekends
- Working outside in a variety of weather conditions
- Lifting and transporting of heavy objects
- Standing for extended periods of time